

Key Vocabulary

Continent	A very large area that consists of several countries.
Country	A political unit which the world is divided into
Currency	The money used in a particular country.
Population	The number of people who live in a particular place.
Climate	General weather conditions that are typical of a place.
Capital City	The city in a country where the government operate from.
Compass	An instrument which is used for finding directions
Architecture	The planning, designing and constructing of a building.
Migrated	To move from one place to another.
Monarchy	A country which has a King or Queen

Spain Facts

1. That the UK belongs to Europe.
2. That Spain belongs to Europe.
3. That Russia belongs to Asia and Europe.
4. That Spain borders Portugal, Andorra, France, Gibraltar and Morocco.
5. The Pyrenees Mountains are a natural border between Spain and France.
6. Madrid is the capital of Spain.
7. Spain has a Mediterranean climate.
8. The second largest city in Spain is Barcelona, which is located in Catalonia.
9. Mount Teide is Spain's tallest mountain
10. Spain has a monarchy and the King is called King Felipe VI.

