

Key Vocabulary

Daub	A thick and sticky substance used to form a wall in a round house.
Soldier	A person who fights for their country.
Empire	A group of countries ruled by an emperor
Hill fort	A group of round houses built on a hill.
Invasion	To take over a country with armed force.
Iron Age	A period of time when weapons and tools were made from iron.
Legions	Roman army made up by a group of soldiers.
Roundhouse	A circular building made from timber, wattle and daub and a thatched roof.

10 Facts About Celts and Roman

1. The Romans invaded Britain in 43AD.
2. Emperor Claudius successfully led the Roman invasion on Britain.
3. Romans made roads as straight as possible to get around quickly.
4. Boudicca was a Celtic leader responsible for the first attack on Colchester.
5. Celts built roundhouses and lived in hill forts.
6. Roman soldiers wore helmets to protect their face, head and neck, leather sandals and used a curved shield.
7. The Romans invaded Europe and parts of Africa.
8. The Romans worshipped hundreds of Gods and Goddesses including Juno, Jupiter, Diana and Neptune.
9. The Celts lived through the Iron Age.
10. Roman mythology says that Romulus and Remus founded Rome.

