

Dear Parent/Carer,

World Book Day takes place on Thursday 7th March this year, and we would like to invite you to join us in helping your child make the most of this special occasion- celebrating the joy and value of books and reading. To help them get started on their reading journey, or to fuel their enthusiasm for reading further, every child receives a £1 World Book Day Token that can either be exchanged for special £1 World Book Day books at various supermarkets and outlets, or can be used to get £1 off the price of a book. You can find out more about the £1 books at worldbookday.com and there are lots of fun activities to do on there as well. Our school book fair will take place on Tuesday 5th, Wednesday 6th and Thursday 7th March at 3.30-4.15pm in the forum so please come along to see the huge selection of fantastic children's books available to buy. The money we raise from this is spent on books for the children to enjoy in school.

We will once again be asking the children to dress up as their favourite book character and the staff will all have costumes based on the book 'The Day the Crayons Quit', so your child can join in with this theme if they want, dressing as a crayon.

Whatever your child chooses, please don't feel you have to go out and buy a costume as the home-made ones are always the best! The children will have lots of opportunities to explore different books, both during the week and on the day, and we will be doing lots of other exciting activities too.

We look forward to seeing your child dressed up for the special day on Thursday 7th March.

Thank you for your continued support.

Mr Watson
